ABHILASHA INVITATION:

REPORT:

Abhilasha is an annual interdepartmental talent fest for the first years, conducted by the Student Cabinet to welcome the first years and to encourage them to showcase their talents. It aims to break the students out of their shells and try and explore various opportunities. This helps the freshman to not only feel bonded with their department but also each other, creating a spirit of teamwork and oneness to kick-start the year. This year's theme was COMEDY CENTRAL. Each department was given a particular TV Show which they had to incorporate in their performances. Events include Light Music, JAM, Quiz, Block and Tackle, Classical Dance to name a few. A few Shows given to the departments include "Brooklyn-Nine-Nine", "The Big Bang Theory" etc. The Chief Guests were, Ashok Selvan (Film Actor), Nivas K. Prasanna (Music Composer), and Rahul Nambiar (Playback Singer). The Department of B.Com MM emerged victorious as the Overall Winners of Abhilasha. The Department of Electronic Media emerged as the Runners Up. The title of Miss Abhilasha was bagged by Ms.RashmiGovind from the Department of Electronic Media.

REPORT:

M.O.P Vaishnav College for Women has always nurtured top-caliber women achievers in the field of media, management, food science, entrepreneurship and sport. In keeping with this tenet, and in support of its silver jubilee mission of Penn Kalvi, the college has instituted the Yuva Sammaan Award, which will be conferred upon young women achievers every year, to encourage young women to develop a sense of responsibility to the community and thus to improve their own potential as good citizens. What started off as a simple thought to recognize and honor young women achievers has enlarged and culminated into this prestigious award - M.O.P Yuva Sammaan!

The inaugural edition of M.O.P Yuva Sammaan Awards was held on 4th January, 2018 at the college premises with the honorable presence of Chief Guest Ms. Mridula Ramesh, Founder of Sundaram Climate Institute and Executive Director of Sundaram Textiles Ltd. The esteemed juries who meticulously scrutinized the many applicants and finally chose the awardees were Capt. R. Vijayakumar, Executive Director of Madras Management Association, Ms. Bharathy Bhaskar, well known Tamil orator and writer and the Head of Consumer Operations, Citi Bank and Mr. J. Raghunathan, Director of Knowledge Capital Investment Group. The Awardees of the M.O.P. Yuva Sammaan Award for the year 2017- 2018 were Kirthi Jayakumar, Founder of the Red Elephant Foundation, Carnatic Vocalist K. Dharani and National Sabre Fencer C.A. Bhavani Devi and each received a citation of Rs. 1 lakh in order to encourage them to pursue their journey of excellence.

cordially invites you to

LUMINESCENCE

2017 - 18

on 12th August, from 9am to 5pm

Various competitions will be held amongst the 1st, 2nd and 3rd years of the department

GET READY FOR THE BATTLE

M. O. P. VAISHNAV COLLEGE FOR WOMEN (AUTONOMOUS)

Chennai - 600 034, India.

REPORT:

1. Objectives of the programme:

- To provide tremendous exposure in interpersonal skills, team spirit, time management, team coordination and delegation.
- To encourage participation and enthusiasm among the students to take up initiative and expose them to real world scenarios.

2. Programme Brief:

Luminescence is the intramural cultural fest of the department of B. Com Accounting and Finance (Shift II). The event was conducted on 12th August 2017 consisting of 10 events. The team events were Finger on your Lips, Potpourri, Green Screen, Battle of the Minds, Stock Market, and Lights Camera Action while Suits, Sail the Seas, Terifle Couture and Can You Handle the Heat? were the individual events.

The Core Committee of Luminescence was responsible for planning and organising the programme along with the support and guidance of the teachers. The event coordinators were a great pillar of support by coordinating with the participants and ensuring the smooth flow of events. Students from all the three years went on to actively participate in the events and secure the top three places.

3. Programme Outcome:

- The programme, being within the department, led to maximum involvement of students wherein everybody got a chance to showcase their talents through participation in various events and taking up leadership and organisational roles.
- It created an aura of excitement and interest in the realm of accounting and finance among the students.

À la carte

Because we don't need a particular reason to pay tribute to food!
Intra Departmental Competitions

Logo Designing

Ever dreamed of having a food business? Here's your chance to design a logo for your own food establishment!

The logo may represent eateries such as restaurants, cafés, food trucks etc.

The logo may be hand drawn, or digitally designed.

Photography

Focus your lenses - bring out the food connoisseur in you by capturing the vibrancy of the veggies, rustic nature of the spices and the fine crumble of the bread.

So go ahead, and appeal to our taste buds, by bringing the best pictures you've got!

The photographs may comprise of restaurant dishes, desserts, street food etc.

They must feature and highlight the food.

Poster Designing

Blend the Picasso and foodie in you, to create the perfect poster for a food festival!

The poster may feature an existing food festival, or one of your own creation. The details including title, venue, time and other specifications can be decided by the designer.

The poster may be hand drawn, or digitally designed.

Photographs, digital logos and posters to be e-mailed to mop.create.2017@gmail.com
Hand drawn submissions can be submitted to any member of the Create Club, or can be scanned and e-mailed
Submissions to be made on or before 30th September, 2017, Saturday

MADRAS DAY

REPORT:

The Madras Day event was celebrated on August 22nd 2017 to commemorate 378 years of Madras. An array of events like Elocution, Shipwreck, Lawyer's Up, SpooF, Madras Quiz, terribly tiny tales, T-Shirt Designing and Face Painting, with over 18 proud winners from the various departments of the college. The students were asked to speak on the greatness of Madras and how Madras was an emotion and a feeling, rather than just a city. Students showcased their love for the city through enthralling speeches and witty humor. Madras Quiz was conducted by the English department. The shipwreck spotted many young talents in the crowd, bringing them to the spotlight and ignited the spirit of both survival and quick thinking with a tinge of patriotism into them. Amazing artistic skills among the young Madrasians were spotted in the T-Shirt Designing Competition and Face Painting. The event was a grand success, not only in bringing out the true Madras in the students but also bringing to life the magic in the Chennai oceanic air.

RESOURCE PERSON DETAIL:

Shipwreck and Lawyer's up was judged by Sharat Subramanian and Bharat Balaji from War Horse. T-Shirt Designing Competition and Face Painting event was judged by Ms. Ananya Shankar, freelance Visual Artist. Terribly Tiny Tales brought in amazing, heartfelt stories and experiences that the students had in their lovable hometown and how it brought people from around the country and the world together. Ms Malavikha Srivatsan, poet and alumni of the college was the judge for the event.

REPORT:

Objective of the Programme:

- To Commemorate the founding of Chennai city
- To inculcate the sense of pride in exploring the heritage of Chennai.

Programme Brief:

- Every Year Chennaiites come together to celebrate and honour this city. This year the city witnessed many events, exhibitions, talks and so on. As a part of the 378th Madras day celebration, Department of English and the Heritage club of M.O.P Vaishnav College for Women conducted various competitions and talks on Madras with aplomb from August 21-23, 2017 for the students in their premises.

M. O. P. VAISHNAV COLLEGE FOR WOMEN (AUTONOMOUS)

- August 21, 2017: The celebrations in the college kick started this year with a Talk on 'Unknown Facts about Madras' with Mr. Venkatesh Ramakrishnan, a bilingual author who writes in both Tamil and English. Mr. Venkatesh Ramakrishnan writes weekly column in DT next paper on interesting tales from Madras in the decade of 40's. He conducts heritage walks, trips and lectures frequently on Historical subjects.
- The talk was aimed at the college students to generate awareness about the importance of the city and to celebrate its rich culture. The historian cum novelist's talk presented certain fewer known facts about Madras and the Cooum River. His talk aimed at inculcating a thirst for the history and heritage of this city. He traced out the history of Madras and gave a glimpse of how Madras was a city of 'firsts', from having the first bank to first lady to be graduated as a doctor. He enthralled the students with historical snippets about olden day artifacts, sculptures, temples, colleges.
- The second program was a Danceversation on Water Conservation by a group of Heritage enthusiasts belonging to different walks of life. The danceversation through Devarattam aimed at creating awareness about the depleting water resources of Chennai. The group gracefully explained the history of water resources in Chennai, mapped the Adyar River and its significance to Chennai and how water conservation is the need of the hour.
- August 22, 2017: The second day saw various competitions like the Madras Quiz, Lawyers up, Shipwreck, Photo Essay, T-Shirt Designing, Doodling, Face Painting, and TTT thrown open to all the students of the college. The theme for all the competitions was Madras. More than 250 students of various departments of both UG and PG courses enthusiastically participated in all the competitions.
- On stage events: VazhakuEn 18/9 (Lawyers up), Mariyaan (Shipwreck) - Participants were given varied personalities of Madras and were asked to defend the personalities. Winners from these two events went on to defend their title in 'Madras Thillalangadi' (Final Showdown). RJ Sayed of Fever 91.1 FM did a live radio show with the college students, a first of its kind in Chennai.
- MaathiYosi (Spoof): Teams were given scenes from popular TV shows, movies and were asked to give a Madrasi twist to the scenes. Daddy EnakuOruDoubt'u (Madras Quiz): The finalists competed for 4 rounds on questions relating to places, people, food, music from Madras.
- Off Stage events: Mugamoodi (Face Painting) - Participants were given South Indian festivals as theme for the event, SattaiVilambaram (T-Shirt Designing) - Culture of Chennai was the theme for T-Shirt designing. On the spot topics were given for OruKathaiSollatuma – filter kaapi (Terribly tiny Tales) and Kirukal (Doodling) kollywood.

- August 23, 2017: The third day witnessed a short talk on the forgotten traditional board games of Chennai like Paramapadham, Pandi, Pallanguzhi by Ms. KalyaniMuralidharan and the session was followed by informal play session of life size board games where the students played the games and relished the history behind these games.
- August 30, 2017: A talk on Women of Madras by was organized by the college. Chennai's very own historian Mr V Sriram was the guest speaker who traced fascinating events from the past about the famous women of Madras.

Programme Outcomes:

- Students were able to relish and reminisce on the past traditions followed in Chennai
- Students were instilled a thirst for the history and heritage of this city.

RESOURCE PERSON DETAILS:

Venkatesh Ramakrishnan is a bilingual novelist and historian. He authored the sequel to Kalki's 'PonniyinSelvan' and a novel on Delhi Sultanate's invasion of South India called 'Gods, Kings and Slaves'. He specialises in the history of Madras city.

BOOK READING SESSION

SEPTEMBER 13, 2017

CONVERSATION WITH AUTHOR SAI PRAPANCH

VENUE: MEGHDOOT

REPORT:

Pegasus Club under the Atheneum Club of the English Department organised a book reading session with Sai Prapanch on September 13, 2017. The 21-year-old, self-published author, currently studying engineering at SRM Easwari College, interacted with the students about his book, traditional publishing and plagiarism.

Chennai - 600 034, India.

RESOURCE PERSON DETAILS:

The session began with Mr. Sai Prapanch talking about his inspirations for his debut novel 'The Legendary Contractor of Vento' and publishing in India. He went on to explain the hassles in the Indian publishing industry and how he chose self-publishing over traditional publishing. He advised the students who are passionate for writing to diversify their writing and explore new genres. When asked about writing, "Your writing keeps changing. The more you keep writing, the more you discover yourself and if I had to redo my first book it would look completely different from what it is now," said Sai Prapanch.

audiences at several venues across the city – schools, colleges, cafes, public spaces etc.

- The 2017 edition of Poetry with Prakriti Festival will take place from 3rd to 17th December. This year too, we have a stellar line-up of poets and performances by TM Krishna, SikkilGurucharan, Sofia Ashraf and others.
- M.O.P Vaishnav College for Women along with Prakriti Foundation conducted Poetry Festival in the college premises. 'Poetry with Prakriti', an annual festival featuring eminent and emerging poets, each presenting four different readings of their poems to small, intimate audiences at several venues across the city – schools, colleges, cafes, public spaces etc. The aim of the festival was to get poets from varied backgrounds to read and share their poetry in various languages at different locations across the city. The range of voices and heartfelt enthusiasm from the poets this year was shared by the audience and created a brilliant atmosphere.

November 23, 2017:

- The first session saw Poets Sampurna Chattarji & Karthika Nair discussing Metrolands, their upcoming poetry collection about the duo's experiences on the Mumbai local train and the Paris metro respectively. The interactive session explored connections between poetry and illustrations by having poetry read by both the poets along with showcasing their illustrations. The poets enamoured the students with their talk about travelling with poetry. The session was followed by Q & A session with the students.

December 11, 2017:

- The second session hosted Perumal Murugan author, scholar and literary chronicler who writes novel in Tamil. He has written six novels, four collections of short stories and four anthologies of poetry to his credit. Three of his novels have been translated into English. It saw Writer PerumalMurugan reading his robust collection of poetry, a short discussion about his short stories and a recently released novel. The enthusiastic students conversed with the writer getting to know about the context of his works and his style of writing.

December 12, 2017:

- The last session had Ramu Ramanathan, Indian-playwright, Director and Padmashri Jayanta Mahapatra, a physicist, Bilingual Sahitya academy award winning poet sharing his tryst with poetry, particularly about 'love and death', readings from few of his works, stressed the importance of writing poems about experiences from the heart and clarified queries about writing poetry, styles of poetry. RamuRamanathan enthralled the audience with his humorous poems from his recent work, emphasised on theatre movements in India, his works collaborating with youngsters in theatre.

Programme Outcomes:

- Students enthusiastically learnt about the different styles and forms of poetry.
- Students got to converse with the poets and clarified queries on writing poetry.

RESOURCE PERSON DETAILS:

- Perumal Murugan is one of India's most reputed contemporary writers and among our foremost literary craftsmen. His Tamil novels KoolaMaathaari, Nizhal Mutram, Madhorubagan and pookkuzhi have been translated into English. He has received awards from the Tamil Nadu government as well as from Katha Books. Seasons of the Palm was shortlisted for the international Kiriya Award in 2005. In 2017, the English translation of his novel Madhorubagan won the SahityaAkademi Translation Prize.
- A physicist, Jayanta Mahapatra has spent his entire life in Cuttack (India), where he has made his home. His work has appeared in The New Yorker and in virtually every important journal and in several collections, which include Relationship (USA) and won him the Sahitya Akademi Award for the first time for Indian English Poetry in 1981. He has read his poetry throughout the world.
- Ramu Ramanathan is a Mumbai-based journalist and playwright. His book 3, Sakina Manzil and Other Plays is a collection of eight Indian plays in English published by Orient Blackswan. His collection of poems My Encounters with a Peacock was published recently. His list of plays includes Cotton 56, Polyester 84; Jazz; Comrade Kumbhakarna; and Postcards from Bardoli which have been staged in India and overseas. His other plays include Shanti, Shanti, it's a war (1993 All India Best Play Award – The Hindu); and Mahadevbhai, 1892–1942. Ramu Ramanathan is Editor, Print Week India - and has been associated with the print industry for 30 years.
