Deliberations and suggestions by the Members of the Academic council

Members appreciated the introduction of online courses in lieu of Internship and also appreciated the departments for updating their syllabus for suiting the latest changes.

Human Resource Management (PG):

- Dr. Vinod Surana suggested that the labour laws mentioned in the Core courses have been codified into four codes and have received the President's assent between 2019-20 some have been notified and some not notified. It would be useful and advisable if the students are given training on labour codes which are not notified. He also mentioned that for the Core XII paper the topic on 'Mergers & Acquisition' emphasis can be laid on the reasons for the success and failures of Mergers & Acquisition'.
- Mr. Gopinath Koteeswaran opined that inclusion of topics on the shift in the HR aspects in the M.A. (Human Resource Management) Programme should be updated to meet the industry needs.
- Mr. Shankar Sundar Raman suggested including 'Designing a Good Compensation Package for Expats and Domestic employees' as a part of the course.

Business administration (UG):

- With respect to Introduction to E-commerce course offered for B.B. A students Mr. Shankar Sundar Raman remarked that the government has released on 21st June, 2021 the Draft E-commerce regulations and therefore an overview of same can be included in the syllabus.

Commerce (PG & UG)

- With respect to the revised Syllabi Mr. Shankar Sundar Raman suggested that in the valuation topic an addition can be made on the concept of 'Registered Valuer'
- Mr. Gopinath Koteeswaran suggested bringing in Founders of two or three companies who have had a good growth journey in order to give insights to the students on the practical side of the theoretical concepts.
- Dr. Vinod Surana also mentioned that some insights can be given to the students on 'How businesses can grow', the different finance options available etc.
- Mr. Shankar Sundar Raman suggested that a course 'Practical aspects on GST' can be introduced instead of 'Forensic Accounting'.

Sociology

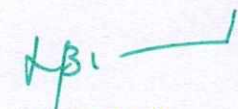

- It was remarked by Mr. Vinod Surana that for B.A Sociology students topics on strategies for operating businesses can be included in the syllabus of the course Social Entrepreneurship

English

- Mr. Vinod Surana suggested inclusion of lessons on creating successful blogs and becoming social media influencers in the English course.

Resolutions and the minutes of the meeting is approved by the Members of the Academic Council.

Comments and Deliberations by the Members of the Academic council

- Dr. Lavanya congratulated the college on the introduction of the new course and for all the activities undertaken in the college.
- Mr. Shankar Sundar Raman also appreciated the introduction of the new course emphasizing on the practical exposure of the concepts to the students in order to enable the students to gain knowledge on tax filling.
- Dr. Elumalai appreciated the initiatives of the college and also stated that the college is known for the various Business, Commerce and Mathematics Programmes.
- Ms. Nitya Vasudevan appreciated the introduction of the new programme and also suggested Tech for Non-tech courses in the form of seminars/workshops for business or commerce students.
- Mr. Kapil Viswanathan suggested bringing in Ethics and Behaviourial Economics into the Finance and Taxation curriculum to bring in the understanding of how increases or decreases in taxation will actually have an impact on tax collection or tax incidence.

Members of the Academic Council approved the above resolutions and the minutes of the meeting.
