M. O. P. VAISHNAV COLLEGE FOR WOMEN (AUTONOMOUS)
Chennai - 600 034, India.

Objective of the Programme:

- To make students understand the concept of branding and its importance in establishing and promoting a business.
- To analyze the importance of networking and its effectiveness in promoting a brand
- To make them learn networking skills, formulation of branding strategies, collaboration skills to promote a brand as in product or a person

Programme Brief:

Beyond fear is a workshop conducted to help students come out of their fear and learn the importance of branding and networking to help them excel in their career and to seize opportunities that are challenging. It helps the students in understanding the importance of facing one's own fear and to be open to new experiences.

Programme Outcomes:

- Students were able to understand the concept of branding and how the establishment of a brand in the market impacts the future of the brand.
- They learnt the basics of networking and the power of creating opportunities wherever they go.
- Students learnt to face their fears with a series of activities that made them step outside of their comfort zone.

Resource Person Profile:

More and more people around the world are acknowledging the fear they feel and are seeking ways to overcome it.

Pratish Nair has spent over 20 years being a serial entrepreneur, film producer-director, speaker and author. What drives him to live on the edge in his desire to help individuals and institutions around the world increase their impact in a rapidly changing world. He founded the world's first school of branding & advertising and is a firm believer that most of the individuals/professionals never reach their full potential only because of fear.

Beyond fear is a 3-4hours workshop that helps individuals to face their fears and overcome them. It's a highly engaging and rigorous workshop that has results in the past 9years which has been attended by more than 70k students and professions alike.

Pratish believes there is no greater joy than pursuing your passions with a vengeance as it not only the world but also you. He lives by the words "how we spend our day is, of course, how we spend our lives. So make it splendid.

Objective of the Programme:

To make students Learn the art of Story Telling, Knowing the aesthetics of cinema and the purpose of Cinema.

To cover various genres of writing with fiction and non fiction.

To make them Understand Genres, Finding subjects of interest, Narrative Structures of Screenplay writing, Visualising the script, Editing the script, Basics of pre-production, production and post production and the roles of writer in each stage

Programme Brief:

The workshop explored the key concepts and fundamental principles involved in the process of script writing. Screenplays form the starting point for most dramatic films, the essential work from which all other film making flows. Introduced students to the basic elements and key concepts behind a professional screenplay.

Programme Outcomes:

Students were able to understand the mixture of basic theory, script analysis and practical exercises. They explored the key principles expressed in great films, then immediately apply these concepts. By the end of the session, they were asked to write script on their own and discussed in the forum

Resource Person Profile:

Mr. K. Hariharan, an Indian film director who has directed films in many Indian languages including Tamil, Marathi and Hindi. Currently, he is working as a professor of film studies in the Krea University. He has immersed himself in the world of music, painting and dance.

"Ezhavadhu Manidhan" is his directorial debut in Tamil Cinema focuses on air pollution and also won the National Film Award for Best Tamil Film and the Afro-Asian Award at the Moscow Film Festival.

In his movie 'Ghashiram Kotwal' ('77) an adaptation of Vijay Tendulkar's play, the final shot of the film lasts for more than ten minutes. According to K. Hariharan, this shot is unique in film history as "the world's longest shot on a standard reel of 1,000 feet to be shot by four camera operators."

His other films include a children's film 'Dubashi' (2002), 'Ghashiram' screened at the Berlinale in '78. Another movie titled 'Current' starring Om Puri received the Best Critics award in 1992.

PROGRAMME OBJECTIVE: To provide knowledge for the students about the five heads of income and to briefly explain about income under capital gains.

PROGRAMME BRIEF: The session spoke about what is income tax and the five heads of income. The Income under capital gains was briefly explained. It provided insights on what is capital gains and what are the capital assets which comes under short term and long-term capital gains. It also explained how capital assets are to be classified under short and long term. She also explained the mathematical way in which a capital asset can be concluded as short term or long-term capital gain. Further the assets which doesn't come under capital gains were also specified. Later she explained about the conditions and limitations which is applied for a land to be called as urban agriculture land. The concept of transfer of capital assets under section 2(47) was explained. The session also gave a explanation about the exemptions which are under section 54 and their sub-sections. Lastly, she also explained how to tax the capital assets like listed shares, general assets etc., under circumstances where indexation of those assets may exist or not.

PROGRAMME OUTCOME: The session answered to all the questions on how to treat a capital asset under capital gains and what are the exemptions applicable for each type of capital asset. Moreover, it gave us a clear view about the whole concept so that it would be easy for us to give conclusion for mathematical problems which we deal in this subject. The session was very interactive because she gave examples for each and every scenario so that students would understand in a practical way. At the end of the session all the students were enriched on the concept of capital gains.

RESOURCE PERSON: Mrs. Soundarya is an independent tax consultant. She is an alumna of M.O.P Vaishnav College for Women (Autonomous).

ABOUT THE PROGRAM:

The Freshers Induction Programme titled "Swagatham" was conducted to welcome the new batch of Undergraduate students (2022-25) and orient them towards the M.O.P culture. It was conducted in a total of three slots with a total strength of 1,230 students in attendance.

PROGRAMME OBJECTIVE:

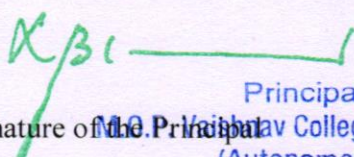

- To welcome the first year students to the Institution.
- To Orient them on the expectations in terms of conduct and academic performance at MOPVC
- To sensitise the students that their conduct and performance reflect on the brand name and value of the institution they are enrolled with.

PROGRAMME BRIEF:

- The students reported as per the slot timings assigned and were directed to the respective classrooms.
- The faculty advisors first collected all the pending documents from the students and introduced the faculty of the program handling various subjects throughout the course of their study.
- Refreshments were provided to all the students in their respective classrooms.
- They were subsequently taken to the auditorium for the formal Induction Programme.
- The College documentary was screened at the auditorium for the students to understand the holistic activities of the college and the pride that Alumni bring to the institution.
- The Induction programme commenced with an invocation song, followed by the M.O.P Anthem, Principal's Address and a cultural programme consisting of light music, dance and a skit.

PROGRAMME OUTCOME:

- All the students were very enthused to meet their Programme heads, faculty advisors and their respective classmates.
- The students were inspired by the address of the Principal, Dr. Lalitha Balakrishnan.
- Dr. Lalitha madam also introduced the Vice Principal, Controller of Examinations, Deans, Heads of Programmes, Head of Administration and Accounts departments of the institution.
- The cultural programme was a resounding success, as the students obtained a flavour of extra-curriculars at MOPVC. While humour was the underlying tone of entertainment, the activities at MOP were seamlessly woven into the skit performed by the cultural team.

ABOUT THE PROGRAM:

The Guest Lecture on The Art of Cross-Examination- Essential Courtroom Skill Development was conducted for the II UG students of the program B.Com Accounting & Finance Shift II, on 1st of August 2022, between 2pm and 5pm at the Fifth Floor Seminar Hall. The resource person who handled the session was Mr. S.Muthukumar, M.L- Advocate, Madras High Court Chambers, specialised in Property cases. The subject under which this was organised is Practical Auditing.

PROGRAMME OBJECTIVE:

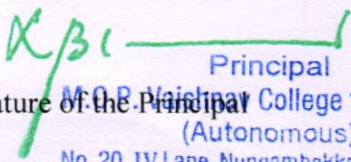

- To inculcate the skill of effectively extracting required information from clients in the scenario of an Audit, to obtain complete information, based on which an opinion on the financials is provided
- To inculcate basic courtroom knowledge, skills and ability to defend or prosecute a case in the event of appearing before the NCLT in their professional space.

PROGRAMME BRIEF:

- The Program commenced with an introduction of the resource person and welcoming all the attendees.
- The advocate first described the basic terminologies frequently used in a courtroom and the idea of prosecutor and defense, with their respective counsels.
- A set of 25 students had been sent for prior outbound training at the legal advisor's office where they were assigned a variety of cases and taught how to argue them and in what all angles, they could design their cases.
- After the introductory lecture, the venue was arranged like a courtroom and the set of 25 students commenced the arguments on their cases, by presenting evidences, exhibits and relevant documents to the judge (resource person)
- After every case, the advocate explained all the unexplored angles from which the case could additionally be argued and his comments on the students' performance.
- A total of seven cases (combination of civil and criminal) were argued.
- A hundred and forty students of the program were in attendance

PROGRAMME OUTCOME:

- The Guest Lecture proved to be very useful and kept all the students completely engaged and in awe.
- The students who participated in the Courtroom trials were immensely benefitted, and an interest in taking up Legal Services as a profession was kindled in all students alike.
- The program improved the students' analytical skills and professional scepticism, which we hope will provide them with a significant edge in the workplace over their peers.

Chennai - 600 034, India.

PROGRAMME OBJECTIVE: To provide students inputs on the journey of an entrepreneur and enable them to correlate with their theoretical learning.

PROGRAMME BRIEF: The session laid emphasis on how one can become an entrepreneur. Mrs. Logeshwari Uday Kumar shared her own journey of becoming an entrepreneur. Provided insights on how one could go about with their business ideas independently with zero investment just like her. She motivated and encouraged the students to do what they love until it harms others, believe in yourself and have guts to achieve your goals. It concluded with an interactive Q&A session.

PROGRAMME OUTCOME: The session enabled students to learn how they could convert their business ideas into reality. It gave a detailed view of what a life of an entrepreneur is; the challenges that an entrepreneurial process poses and how to overcome it. It helped in getting understanding of how one can have a balance between work life and personal life. Moreover, it was quite an inspirational session with respect to the growing niche of women entrepreneur.

RESOURCE PERSON: Mrs. Logeshwari Uday Kumar, entrepreneur, Eventiaa.
